Sohio issued two maps of the Great Lakes Expo—oddly, the Cleveland map had the better site map.

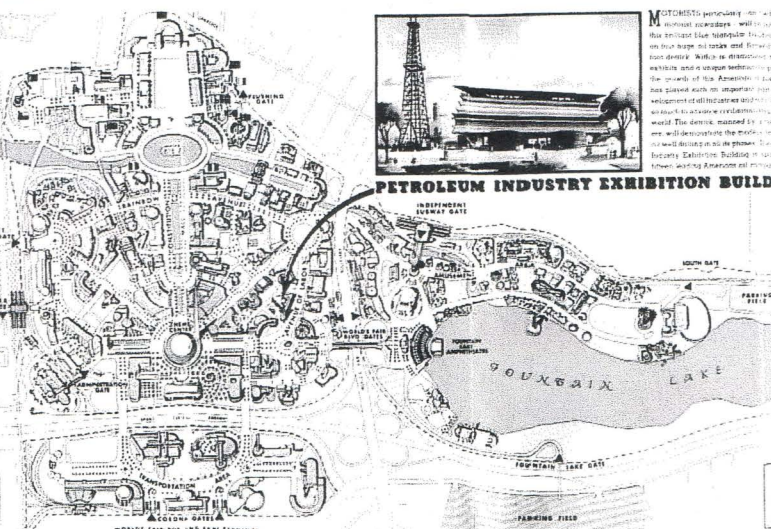

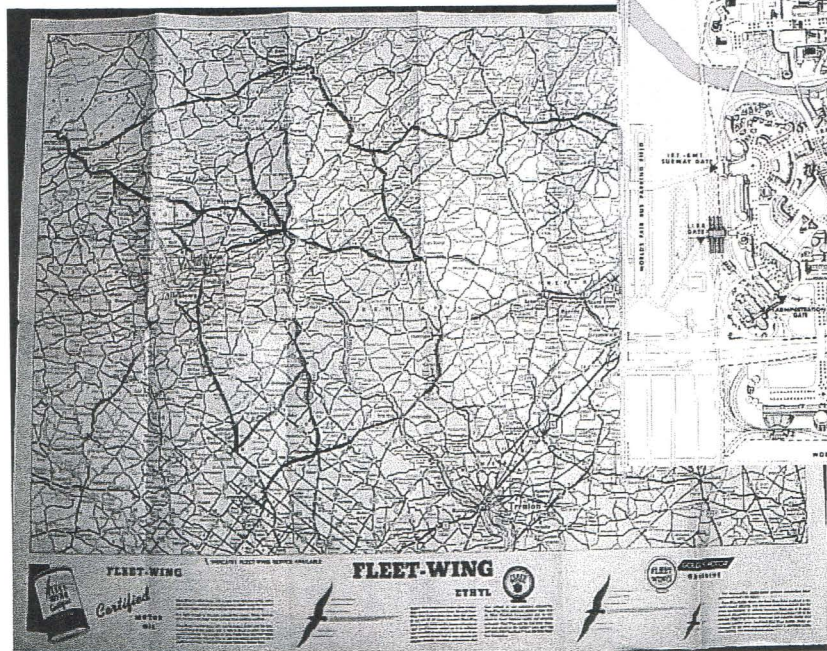

Below is the Cities Service map of the Texas Centennial Expo.

Conoco, whose Touraide service was perhaps the premier travel routing service, issued this map and a similar one for the New York World's Fair as inserts in their Touraide binders. It is sadly noteworthy that maps of the New York fair lack exhibit names. Only the Official Guide Book displayed such information. The Mobilgas map below shows the unnamed buildings in nice detail.

The Fleet-Wing map to the left is unique in that it was issued by a jobber in addition to the corporate map. The reason was to show the routes from every Pennsylvania Independent Oil Co. Fleet-Wing station to the Fair.
